

Small Business Saturday November 26, 2022

A nationwide initiative promoted locally by the city of Cambridge to encourage residents to engage and invest in the small businesses of their communities, a big thank you to Cambridge and Pardis Saffari for their efforts and the cute tote bags which are just the right size for some of the current works on display!

Meditations: Inspiring Change 2022

the i3C Group Exhibition curated by Adriana G. Prat is currently on view through the holiday weekend.

Please visit us to support the collective work of a team dedicated to promoting conscientious stewardship of our planet.

Gallery is open Friday and Saturday 11/25 and 11/26 12-5pm

Blue Vase, artist Sarah Meyers Brent (courtesy of Chase Young Gallery)

Closing Reception

Meditations on Climate Crisis:

Inspiring Change 2022

Join us! Sunday November 27th 2:00 - 4:00pm

Among the 21 dedicated artists' works featured in the showing is this Gray Wolf mixed-media treasure created by Yulia Shtern. The wolf, a pack animal and survivor of the wild inspires great love and admiration and awe... as do the artists of the i3C exhibition.

Thank you, i3C Artists and thank you, Adriana G. Prat :-)

<https://www.i3cartists.com/>

Piano Harp and Community Weaving Project

An ongoing opportunity to experience sound frequencies and tactile sensation, all in the name of discovery. Piano harp and loom are unofficially open NOW! Local business owners and activists Rafael Medina and Julie Ayaz are planning good things, including a welcome performance and small group experiences for young hearts, hands and ears :-)...stay TUNED !!

Book Sharing and Walkabout with Daria Tommasi
Saturday December 3

Join artist Daria Tommasi to experience her lovingly illustrated book inspired by observations in local neighborhoods. In these pages, Daria, originally from Trieste, Italy, offers us a tender glimpse of her discoveries from our home streets, a visual treat that promises to be a delight for longtime residents and newcomers as well. Daria will welcome visitors to the gallery between 11am and 3pm after which time interested parties will embark on a whimsical walk through our urban neighborhoods as a complement to her beautiful book. Our 30-minute guided walk concludes at the Katherine Small Gallery in Somerville where hot tea will be served to the brave ones who made the journey.

OVA
Opening Reception
Sunday December 4th from 1:00 - 3:00pm

Organic and minimalist feminine interpretations of the symbol of the egg form as life-carrying vessel, keeper, and protector. This will be a gorgeous showing of ceramics created by Tomoko Terashita (image), Kyoko Ono and Joji Goto...

and 2D works by local artists Jenka Foreman, Betsida Abebe, Tomoko Terashita as well as duo-tone paintings from the gallery's inventory of mid-century paintings by deceased artist Myra Wilson.

This exhibition runs through the end of 2022 and promises to be a warm and enticing stopover on your holiday season walks and shopping journeys.

Observatory Hill Holiday Stroll
Sunday, December 11th
3:00 - 6:00pm

Come out for a Sunday walk and make merry with neighbors and friends!

Our Ova exhibition will be in full swing with a few of the artists in the gallery, the piano harp and loom will be out, and musical and edible festive treats will be offered.

Thanks to Cynthia Harney Becker of Hi-Rise Bakery for organizing and to the City of Cambridge for supporting this community event.

Young Blood 2023
Bold and Sweet

Coming in January, prepare to be swept away with visual and sound sensations from some very bright and beautiful artists. Slated to open on January 8, 2023 with a growing line-up, it is not too late to reach out if a teen/young adult in your world would like to participate!!

Contact julie@honeyjonesstudio.com

honeyjones late fall into winter 2022 / 2023 newsletter

Many good things are coming. Thank you for being and staying with us!

honeyjones
270A Concord Ave. Cambridge, MA 02138